

Robert Heely

Bob Heely serves as Vice President for Development & Community Relations for Westminster-Canterbury on Chesapeake Bay. Bob manages the activities of the Westminster-Canterbury Foundation, which provides financial assistance for prospective residents. He also is responsible for marketing and expanding Westminster-Canterbury's involvement in the community.

Prior to coming to Westminster-Canterbury, Bob completed a twenty-nine year Commercial Banking career, retiring as a vice president and senior relationship manager at Wachovia Bank in Norfolk. Active in fundraising and public relations for many years, he served as chairman of the Wachovia Community Council, chairman of the United Way Campaign in Norfolk, vice president of the Norfolk Senior Center, vice president of the Virginia Maritime Association, a past president of the Norfolk Rotary Club and is an active Lay Leader at Monumental United Methodist Church where he currently plays the electric guitar in the church band.

Originally from Portsmouth, Bob is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, served as a U. S. Marine Lieutenant in Vietnam and received an MBA in Finance from Old Dominion University prior to beginning his banking career.

His program is entitled "Pathways to Wellness" or "Living Longer and Loving It".